NATIONAL CREDIT ACT DISCLOSURE	Does the Customer's current annual turnover exceed R 1 million?	Y	N
	Does the Customer's current asset value exceed R 1 million?	Y	N

CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT

To the extent that the Customer is a natural person, or a juristic person as defined in the Consumer Protection Act 68 of 2008 ("CPA") who's asset value and/or annual turnover is at the time of the conclusion of this agreement less than threshold determined by the Minister in Section 6 of the CPA (currently two million rand) then the Customer's attention is drawn to the following specific conditions of the Company's Terms and Conditions of Business as required by Section 49 of the CPA. Clauses 5.2, 5.5.1, 6.1, 6.3, 6.6, 7, 8, 9, 10.2 to 10.6, 11, 12.1, 12.6 to 12.8, 13, 14.4, 15.4, 15.5, 15.9, 15.12.

NATIONAL CREDIT ACT

NATIONAL CREDIT ACT 34 OF 2005: This application contemplates an agreement where goods or services are supplied to the Customer and payment for such goods or services may be received at a specified later date. No charge, fee or interest as contemplated in the National Credit Act will become payable by the Customer as a result of this agreement. Accordingly, the proposed agreement does not constitute a Credit Agreement for purposes of the National Credit Act 34 of 2005 ("the NCA"). If, however, the Customer fails to pay any amount due in terms of the proposed agreement on or before the stipulated due date, the Company will be entitled, but not be obliged, to charge interest at a rate of 2% per month or such other maximum rate of interest as may be prescribed in respect of incidental credit agreements pursuant to the NCA and any regulation published thereunder.

Signed at _____ on this _____ day of _____ 20____.

I/We, the undersigned, do hereby warrant that I/We am duly authorised to sign this Application for membership and to sign this agreement on behalf of the applicant and, in addition, I/We sign this agreement in my/our personal capacity as surety and co-principal debtor with the applicant. I/We have read, understand and accept our Standard Terms and Conditions of Subscription, Standard Terms and Conditions of Engagement and Privacy Policy.
